Preface

The preface to the volume for 1801 and that for 1806 explain the sources and methodology and acknowledge the aid given us by many persons and institutions. We now gratefully thank several others for their help.

Mr. Newton F. McKeon, Librarian of Amherst College, sent us his dated shelflist which turned up a good many new entries and much more complete information about a large number of titles we had listed.

Mr. Thompson R. Harlow, Director of the Connecticut Historical Society, Hartford, also sent us his dated shelflist which produced a large number of Connecticut imprints hitherto unknown to us. He also contributed several titles in the 1801-10 period which will appear in the addenda.

Mr. Edward G. Howard of 1308 Bolton Street, Baltimore, sent us additional information on several entries and contributed a Maryland imprint to one of these volumes.

Mr. Forrest Bowe, 110 Morningside Drive, New York, also gave us additional information and confirmed the actuality, with locations, of some titles that appeared to be ghosts.

Mr. Edmund R. Arnold, now Bibliographer at East Stroudsburg State College, Pennsylvania, worked hard and long comparing our files with published sources while he was a research assistant at the Graduate School of Library Service, Rutgers University.

We continue to invite all who use this checklist to send us additions and corrections.
